

Privacy Agreement

The collection, use and disclosure of personal information is controlled and protected provincially by the Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA) and federally by the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA). First Foundation Residential Mortgages respects your rights regarding the protection of your personal information.

When you become a client of First Foundation we will need to collect personal information from you. This information is required for the purposes of confirming your identity and credit history, securing mortgage commitments on your behalf, and obtaining appraisals and title searches on the property that will be the subject matter of the mortgage. The information we will collect includes, but is not limited to:

- contact information including your name, address, telephone and fax numbers and e-mail addresses;
- your date of birth;
- your Social Insurance Number;
- employment, credit, asset information and personal references;
- information about the nature and financial situation of any company where you are a significant shareholder;
- insurance information
- municipal and legal descriptions for your property;
- any other relevant information which is necessary to provide you with our services.

Some or all of the above information may be provided to lenders, appraisers, your lawyer, mortgage insurers, realtors, co-borrowers, credit reporting agencies, financial planners, and any other persons to whom you have specifically consented.

You have our assurance that we will comply with our Privacy Policy. For more information about our Privacy Policy please contact Miranda Wulf, First Foundation Inc. Privacy Officer, at (780) 702-7678 or mwulf@firstfoundation.ca.

The undersigned consent to the collection, use and disclosure of the undersigned's personal information by First Foundation Residential Mortgages for the purposes set out above and in our Privacy Policy.
